

How Will I Be Remembered?

David Wright

In one broadcast of his program “Living on the Edge,” Chip Ingram asked a good question: How do you want to be remembered? With what few words would you like for your life to be described?

Think about the household names of Tom Brady, Peyton Manning, Frank Sinatra, Elvis Presley, Picasso, Rembrandt, and Da Vinci. People envy the fame attached to great achievements, but worldly attainments make no lasting difference. Great quarterbacks, singers, and artists will one day be forgotten. Even if the Mona Lisa or a recording of “Love Me Tender” endures until the end of time, the fire of final judgment will consume it in an instant.

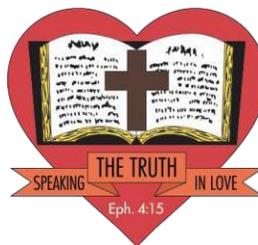

Only spiritual things ultimately matter. The Bible says that “we look not to the things that are seen but to the things that are unseen. For the things that are seen are transient, but the things that are unseen are eternal” (2 Cor. 4:18-19). Understanding this influences my own answer to Chip Ingram’s question.

I want to be remembered as a man of God. The expression “man of God” is very special to me. Paul tells Timothy, “As for you, O man of God, flee these things [i.e., material pursuits]. Pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, steadfastness, gentleness. Fight the good fight of the faith” (1 Tim. 6:11-12).

I want to be remembered as a man of God. But Chip Ingram asked another good question in his message: Are your words and actions in harmony with your intentions? Wanting to be remembered as a great athlete, musician, or artist doesn’t mean that I am one. Great accomplishments on the ball field or in a music hall or in an art gallery result from endless hours of practice and self-discipline. I will be remembered as a man of God only if I’m talking and acting like one right now.

How do you want to be remembered? Are your everyday choices consistent with your good intentions?

Visitors, we are glad you came and hope you will fill out the pink side of the visitor card on the back of the pew in front of you. We have an attended nursery for infants to 18 months. Please come back.

Jason Merciers had surgery last week, part of his foot was amputated. He will be in rehab for several weeks.

Randy Noble had back surgery recently. It went well.

Jodie Gunnels had surgery Thursday morning to stop internal bleeding. She is at Medical City of Dallas in the CU.

Laurie Edmonds is taking cancer treatments.

Gary Edmonds has been diagnosed with Lou Gehrig's disease.

Cheryl Greer (Elizabeth Traister's daughter) has staph infection in her bone. Hopefully when the Covid-19 virus is over she will be able to have surgery.

Joyce Davis is still unable to get out due to back problems. She is not sure what can be done right now.

postponed till we start meeting on Wednesday's again.

On the Lighter Side

She didn't get it ...but he did

One-time Grandpappy was traveling by bus to a big city. He happened to be seated by a lady who had no knowledge about the rural life. She was working a crossword puzzle.

"Sir ," she said, "I note that you're e a rancher and I wonder-what is a female sheep?"

"Ewe," Grandpappy replied. And he never saw what hit him.

Tuesday morning ladies

Bible class will not meet again till September.

Our New Worship Schedule

We will have two services on Sunday morning. You may choose to come at 9:00 or 10:00 am.

Also, there will be a live stream at the 10:00 am. Service.

And a live stream at 7:00 pm. On Wednesday evenings.

No night services or Bible classes.

Hopefully this will just be for a short time. (We have communion kits for anyone that would like to stop by the building Mon-

Thursday) .

Cards

Please make a special effort to mail cards to the sick and bereaved, since we are not putting them in the foyer to be signed right now.

Time Travelers

Thank you! Jason, and Zan for continuing to teach Time Travelers on our Web site.

Thanks to all of you for mailing your offering to the church or stopping by. May God bless you!

We are sad to hear that Melissa Jones lost her only sibling this past week. Danny Oliver age 39, died suddenly with an aneurysm. Please reach out to Melissa with calls, cards.
